Happy Grandparents Day

A grandmother got a note from her son and daughter-in-law that her grandchildren would be coming to spend a week with her. She loved her precious little granddaughter and her lively little grandson, and when she thought about the pleasure that awaited her with them in her home, she went to church and put five dollars in the offering plate, as a token of thanksgiving. She kept her granddaughter and grandson for a week, and what a week it was. When they went home, she went back to church to put in a twenty dollar bill in the offering plate in thanksgiving.

I was trying to help my grandson with his arithmetic homework. I said to him, “suppose you reached in your right pocket and found a ten dollar bill, and you reached in your left pocket and found another one, what would you have?” My grandson’s answer: “Somebody else’ pants.”
